

WORKSHOPS FOR CHILDREN

By creating an environment that allows for free exploration, experimentation and testing, we give children the opportunity to discover their talent, entertainment and the path they want to follow.

All our activities have elements of training, development, creativity and fun.
The elements which are the sun, water and fertile ground for the development of children!

Art Workshops

♥ From artistic expression to modeling and model building, children will develop their imagination and creativity as well as develop precision, alignment and balance. A variety of natural materials used allows children to become familiar and closer to nature and gives a creative way to adopt the knowledge.

Dance Workshops

♥ Adopting the dance technique children will shape and strengthen their body, develop a sense of dynamics, time, measure and rhythm. Enjoying the dance, children will develop awareness of the body in dance movement, they will be encouraged to be creative, expressive, imaginative, to research, to independent form of smaller dance and rhythmic units, and to improvise.

Theater Workshop

♥ Theater workshop is designed primarily to develop speech and communication skills. Children get a chance to express themselves in an entirely new way. The workshop consists of segments acting and puppetry.

Musical Workshops

♥ Let the children, by listening the music, develop their hearing and sense of music, singing and increase their confidence. Let them, by playing instruments, acquire skills and knowledge about the speed, tone, melody, song and finally the instrument.

Development workshops

♥ Workshops of making friendship bracelets

Combining practical skills with the elements of sharing, we encourage the development of empathy with which children will develop a new perception.

The workshop develops empathy, appreciation, understanding of others and their feelings and self-confidence.

Little Gardeners

♥ Through direct experience of contact with the soil, planting, cultivation of plants, observing their growth, children develop all their senses, psychomotor skills and knowledge in the broadest sense of the word.

In this workshop children will learn how they can plant vegetables and herbs that can grow in pots in the garden or on the balcony.

The Little School of Folklore:

♥ Ethno storytelling & workshops of traditional ornaments

Stories can encourage the exchange of opinions, personal encounters and experiences, encourage verbal expression, spread general awareness and education, encourage 'healthy' curiosity and creativity, particularly with regard to the customs of our region. By creating decorations, children develop creativity, imagination, precision and the sense of cooperation with others. Some of the ornaments made are: Decorative Easter eggs, Christmas tree ornaments, traditional decorations for Mother's Day and more.
